Unique every day. Why gourmets love ending up at Dallmayr.

With a passion for indulgence, Dallmayr makes every day unique. The Munich institution is a meeting place for gourmets and foodies from all over the world. Quality has been a tradition here for centuries: as a former purveyor to several royal houses, the delicatessen stands out for its diverse range of products across 19 specialist departments. The confectionery delights its customers with a broad selection of pralines and handcrafted chocolates from its very own manufactory. Right next door is the tea department, which offers around a hundred varieties to discover.
